OLD BUSINESS:

A motion was made to amend NRA/NWRA Rule M.2.2 Permit Holders: Annual permit dues of $110. A contestant may purchase a permit if contestant has not won over $500 in organized professional or regional rodeo competition during their lifetime. Permit holder can compete at all rodeos which accept permits until $500 is won. The permit holder's points will count toward year-end standings. After the $500 money won limit is reached, a card must be purchased. Price of card will be the dollar difference between the cost of a permit and the cost of a card. However, the contestant must be a card holder to compete at the Finals rodeo. The $500 money won limit will be accumulated from year to year, allowing the contestant to purchase a permit each year until $500 is won. Permit holders are bound by the same rules as members. Once a membership card has been held, a permit cannot be purchased. Motion was seconded and passed.

A motion was made to amend NRA/NWRA Rule M.2.1.4 Rookie qualifications are as follows: First-year Contestant Card Member with the most money won in a particular event as of the end of the Rodeo Year, including money won through the Finals Rodeo.
