From the Crow's Nest

Thanks for reading the newsletter.

We always know when we raise someone's ire about an item in the newsletter that the newsletter is being read. Otherwise we never know. So, thanks for reading the newsletter.

We cannot emphasize enough the importance of your keeping us informed of your current address. With membership renewals at an all-time peak, we find that we've been sending numerous newsletters to the wrong addresses, wrong towns, etc. With the mailing permit the Northern Rodeo Association possesses, the newsletter is not forwarded should the address be wrong. The colorful publication is chucked into the wastebasket at the post office.

This costs the NRA from $1 to $2 each for the newsletter, plus the postage — up to 63 cents each. Multiply this by the couple of hundred possible wrong addresses, and you have a major expenditure, a waste, and only because you were remiss in sending the Association your change of address. Please keep us informed, and save the NRA some money.

Support the high school kids as they venture to the State High School Rodeo Finals to be held in Kalispell on July 6, 7 and 8. Support these prep cowpokes; they are the future of the Northern Rodeo Association!

Send us those NRA rodeo pictures. We are desperate!

Tootie and Stan Rasmussen, Editors

THANKS

Dear NRA,

Well, another college rodeo season is stuck under the belt except for the National Finals held in Bozeman the 17-24.

I just want to thank you for the membership donation from your association to me for winning the Big Sky Region Barrel Racing title. Thank you so much! See ya, around this summer! Thanks.

Lisa Scheffer

Letters to Editor

Dear Tootie and Stan;

We as a family and owners of the Rocky Mountain Rodeo Co. would like to express our answer to your letter in the May-June issue of the NRA Newsletter. We would like to clarify to your readers that we have at no time every requested you or your publication to publish any of the pictures or results of our open winter series rodeos held here in Kalispell this past winter.

We would also like to say that we did not consider any of the cowboys or cowgirls who attended and competed in these rodeos anything but very good and intelligent people. Also we do not consider any rodeo that we produce — whether it be high school, college, all Indian, NRA or open to be substandard.

We are working hard to improve our rodeos and stock to make each rodeo we produce better than the one before, as we feel is a goal of all other stock contractors.

Thanks for your past support and hope we'll see you all this summer.

Sincerely yours,
The Carpenter Family

To the NRA;

Once again I have thoroughly enjoyed the Absarokee Broken Horn Stampede, with one exception. For two years I have watched an acquaintance wait (and hurt) for almost thirty minutes for an ambulance after being stepped on by a bull. I feel an ambulance is a standard safety precaution that shouldn't be ignored. I realize they don't come cheap, but it's stupid to leave the cowboys' health to good luck and Deacon. How about part of that $5 admission fee going towards an ambulance?

Sincerely,
Jana Schneider

Dear Stan and Tootie,

Enclosed is a check for $6.50 for a subscription to the newsletter.

I'm not rodeoing this year, but still want to know what's happening in Montana.

Thanks,

Cody Kelly
Ak-Sar-Ben-Field
Omaha, Neb. 68106

Dear NRA;

Thank you very much for the free membership. It is a great chance for a college student to get into a great association. Thanks a bunch.

To Secretaries: PLEASE be sure and call the Billings Gazette with your rodeo results as soon as possible after the rodeo. It is amazing how many people look for those results and we can use ALL of the press we can get! Phone 1-800-332-7089. Thanks!

Contestants: Any of you who received last year's rule book when you purchased your card and would like the new updated 1984 rulebooks (nice job, Tootie, Stan, Glen Hough and Ed Waldhauser!), call the office.

ABOUT THE NEW COMPUTER: The Northern Rodeo Association recently purchased an IBM PC Computer for the office. As of now, it has the current membership list on it, can sort it by card number, name or zip codes (for mailings), sorts all members, just east, just west, or male or female, short membership list (contestant name, card number and town), or long list (name, complete address, card number, phone). Last year, Jill Carpenter was nice enough to do all of this on her computer. Thanks, Jill.

The computer also has the suspended list on it, tells the year, the event, the rodeo, stock contractor, name, etc. It has a current turn-out list, too, and tells whether doctor released, paid the turnout, where, event, name, stock contractor, etc.

The rodeos will also be put into the computer. If you want to see the results of Absarokee or whatever, just push a button and you can see the results. It will also keep the standings. The contestant's card number is entered, and the computer brings up the contestant's name. If you do not have the correct card number, it tells you. (This is why it is VERY important that the contestant's card numbers are correct on the result sheets, including the correct regions).

It keeps track of the all-around money won and event money won. This year, all money won will be kept both by hand and on the computer, in case of "bugs" in the computer program. I look forward to the day that all of the information gets on it! More to come . . .

Jann Johnson, NRA Secretary

ARENA DUST

The third annual Hill Photo Breakaway Roping has been scheduled for Aug. 12. Watch for more details.

It's a boy! to Lyle and Kathy Hill of Geyser, and the first grandkid for John and Lois Hill. Cody James showed up on June 4, weighing 8 pounds and 13 ounces.

Dick and Terry Lyman are the parents of a new daughter born this spring, their third. No other vital statistics or details are available.

Stan Steen, father of the Steen Family Trick Riders, was injured during the first annual Old Timers Rodeo at Red Lodge when a saddle bronc horse stepped on him. He reportedly suffered broken ribs, punctured lung and damaged his spleen and a kidney. No late word on his condition is available. Steen was the first paid employee of the NRA, and laid the groundwork for the businesslike method in which NRA business is handled, bringing a certain "professionalism" to the organization.

John Carpenter of the Rocky Mountain Rodeo Co. has been laid up for sometime with a cracked pelvis after a run-in with a horse, and the horse won. Get well soon, John.

Jay Bob Lytle of Cut Bank suffered a broken ankle, cracked pelvis, and numerous cuts and bruises, when he and his pickup, pulling a horse trailer, ran head-on into a semi-truck in Canada. His horse went through the roof of the horse trailer, but survived, as did his dog.

The State High School Rodeo Finals is scheduled to be held July 6, 7 and 8 in Kalispell. High school cowpokes have been busy all spring qualifying and accumulating points, and are anxious to qualify for the National High School Rodeo to be held in Rapid City, S.D. the end of July. Besides the traditional district rodeos, many other qualifying rodeos have been held.

1984 Coors Rodeo Press Contest

The Montana Association of Coors Distributors has announced its third annual Montana Rodeo Press Contest.

Three trophy belt buckles, handcrafted by Miles City silversmith, Cinde Barthelmess, will be awarded to the first place winners at the end of the 1984 rodeo season. According to Dennis Davis, manager of Anco Beverage Co. in Miles City, first and second place winners will be awarded prizes in their respective categories; best rodeo photo, best rodeo news story, or best rodeo feature story. The 1983 honors went to: Linda Best of Bozeman, best rodeo photo; John Moore of Miles City, best rodeo feature story, and Roy Pace of Helena, best rodeo news story.

"Any story or photo that appears in a Montana publication in 1984 is eligible, and other than a few minor changes, the contest will be run just in in previous years," says Davis. Sports editors have entry forms, or they may be obtained from Anco Beverage Co., Coors Rodeo Press Contest, P.O. Box 1158, Miles City, Montana 59301. The deadline for this year's contest will be Dec. 31, 1984.

Contact: Kathy Jo Schneider, Anco Beverage Co., P.O. Box 1158, Miles City, Mont. 59301, phone 1-800-221-2269.

ARENA DUST

There are reportedly some more Australians back in Montana rodeoing this summer, including Phil Mainy who was here a couple of years ago. Of course, everyone knows they merely want to enjoy two summers in one year, since it is now winter "down under." Make them feel welcome.

The College National Finals was scheduled for June 18-23 in Bozeman. Hopefully next issue will carry the exploits of our many talented NRA cowboys and cowgirls who are college competitors.

TEN WAYS TO KILL AN ASSOCIATION

1. Don't come to Association meetings.
2. But if you do come — come late.
3. If the weather doesn't suit you — don't come.
4. If you do attend a meeting — find fault with the work of the officers, directors and other members.
5. Never accept an office — it's easier to criticize than do things.
6. Nevertheless, get sore if you are not appointed on a committee, but if you are appointed — do not attend the committee meetings.
7. If asked by a Director to give your opinion on an important matter, tell him that you have nothing to say — after the meeting tell everyone how things should be done.
8. Do nothing more than is absolutely necessary; but when other members roll up their sleeves, willingly and unselfishly, using their ability to help matters along, howl that the Association is being run by a clique.
9. If your Association is struggling from a financial standpoint to maintain offices on your behalf, be sure to muster all the help you can — to vote against a dues raise.
10. Don't bother about new members — let the other fellow do it.

Letter to Editors

Hi Jann,

As a new one-year member, I must relate the impression I got of the NRA. and all the associated happenings. The best association I've ever had the pleasure of being involved with; it's very professional, very western and the fairest I've ridden in. In my enthusiasm about it, there are about 6 or 7 cowboys that would like to come up and ride, so I told them I'd write and see about some entry forms to your membership if you could send us about 6 or 7. I'll see that they all get passed out to interested hands.

Well, hope to see you down the road soon. You do a really nice job on the news pamphlet.

THE SCHAEFER RODEO JACKET

We've carried the popular satin jacket a few steps further. First, we added a canvas shell and introduced the warmth of Polar Fleece.® Finally we made all of our Rodeo Jackets reversible with pockets on both sides (two that zip). Contrasting piping and snap closures make the Schaefer Rodeo Jacket more versatile than anything in its class.
