From the Crow's Nest

With rodeo season now underway in earnest, the standings so far reflect more money won this early in the season than ever before. It appears more members are going to more rodeos and vying for more money than ever. Could this be a record year?

The great sport of rodeo is made up of a variety of people, of all ages, from all walks of life, who either compete or help in the planning or detail work of the individual rodeos. To the uneducated observer it looks as if a lot of "old folks" are working their tails off to make it possible for the "younger folks" to compete, and no one is complaining. Judging from some of the comments from NRA/MRA Secretary Jann Johnson, the competitors aren't paying much attention to the detailed paper work that must be completed in order for everything to fall into place, and for accurate records to be compiled. A little co-operation and consideration for the other guy's job will go a long way in making the rodeo season a lot smoother. Resolve to abide by the rules — know your card number, observe entry and call back times, and above all, be pleasant.

We have had a number of complaints in the past month about people not getting their newsletters. I would suggest that if it continues, and you have contacted us, then contact the U.S. Postal Service. When your names are on the list (each member has an individual address plate), it baffles me why your newsletters aren't getting to their destination after it has been mailed from here. Apparently, the complaint is universal, as Pat Goggins made a similar comment recently in the Western Livestock Reporter.

Don't forget — the deadline for the NRA/MRA news is the tenth of every month. We still are looking for pictures; black and white are best, but we can take colored, and they will be returned.

See you down the road.

Your Editors,
Tootie and Stan Rasmussen

About The Cover . . .

Britt Givens conquers Small's "Mission Mountain" again, this time at the Broken Horn Stampede at Absarokee, June 4-5. He marked an 83 to win the bull riding, and added $601.88 to his 1983 winnings. The Arapahoe, Wyo. cowboy is the 1982 NRA/MRA All-Around Cowboy, the bull riding champion, and also competes in the calf roping and team roping. Becky Tescher snapped this photo for the NRA/MRA News.

Arena Dust

Bill Stovall was injured during the bull riding at Absarokee, and after undergoing surgery, faces nine months on crutches. Doctors say they were lucky to save his leg, which made a 90° turn at the knee. Bill has decided to judge a few rodeos this summer to whet his appetite for rodeo.

Lyle Hill, son of Lois and John Hill, and Kathy Graham were married June 11 at Belt, with a whing-ding following at Geyser. The couple is at home at Geyser on the family ranch.

Don Jacobs reports he has been busier than usual lately, trucking cattle around from one sales yard to another. Makes it a little tough to get in those rodeos, but he manages. And it fouled up his planned trip to Australia.

Pickup man Larry Johnston broke his wrist team roping on Sunday morning, June 12, before the District 3 high school rodeo in Choteau. But it didn't deter him in picking up, assisting Dick Lyman, and he even served as the rodeo's bullfighter, cast and all.

The State High School Rodeo Finals will be held at Bozeman July 8, 9 and 10. Qualifying district rodeos have been held at the various districts throughout the state, and now the cowboys and cowgirls are anxious to compete for state honors and a chance to go to the national rodeo in Douglas, Wyo. Please lend these prep rodeo stars your support. They are the future of the NRA/MRA.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

To whom it may concern;

Another rodeo season is upon us and we at The Gazette would like to make an offer of mutual cooperation.

For our part, we offer to run results of every rodeo you have. What we would like in return are the results.

Ideally, we would like to have your rodeo secretary call us after every performance. This would enhance your rodeo by reminding our readers you are having a rodeo and it is still going on, so they may come.

However, of first concern, is the final results. What we would like is the name, home town, score and payoff. We will go as deep as you pay. We have plenty of sports to fill our pages but we have always found room for virtually all rodeo news that comes our way.

If you would also let us know when your rodeo is to take place, we can fit in a short blurb. Just send us a copy of your poster.

When you call in a story, let us know the name of the bull or horse the winner rode, it helps spice up the story.

Your help is appreciated.

Our phone number is 1-800-332-7089 or 657-1291 collect.

Thank you and have a good season.

Dear NRA/MRA;

Enclosed is a copy of the NIRA Big Sky Region's event winners for the 1982-83 season.

As the student director of the region, I would like to take this opportunity to thank the NRA/MRA for their support. It never fails, at every college rodeo, we were always supported by the NRA/MRA membership. I know personally it sure is a good feeling to know that there are people cheering for you.

Thanks for all the support!!

Rodger "Skeeter" Nordahl
Big Sky Region
Student Director

Bull Riding — Scott Breeding

Saddle Bronc Riding — John Smith

Bareback Riding — Kevin Kessler

Calf Roping — Brad Waldhauser and Dave Johnson.

Steer Wrestling — Mike Not Afraid.

Team Roping — John Matlack and Les Craig

Men's All-Around — Mike Lenning

Goat Tying — Chris Melaney

Barrel Racing — Lisa Scheffer

Breakaway Roping — Kayleen Chafee

Women's All-Around — Mary Melaney.

Dear NRA/MRA Board of Directors and all concerned;

I would just like to thank you for the 1983 membership you awarded all college event champions.

Thanks for all your support to the college kids.

Chris Melaney
NIRA Big Sky Region
Goat Tying Champion

Dear Jann,

Shirley Clark forwarded your letter on to me. On behalf of the Montana High School Rodeo Association, thank you for your contribution to State High School Rodeo. I will forward the names to you after our rodeo which is July 8, 9, 10, 1983.

Carol Chambers, Secretary
Montana High School Rodeo Association
647 Hulbert W. Rd.
Bozeman, Mont. 59715

Dear NRA/MRA;

I would like to thank Rocky Mountain Rodeo Co. for the nice buckle and clothes bag. I would also like to thank Northern Rodeo Co. from all the bareback riders for the generous donation for the NARC Finals. Thank you.

Curt Pate

Rule Changes

Please make note of these rule changes for the 1983 rodeo season.

A sponsoring rodeo committee is a member of the NRA/MRA with one vote per committee at the general membership meeting.

Payoff is to be followed exactly as stated in the rule book, regardless of circumstances. Example: Two contestants entered in an event. Both place in that event. First place to receive 40%, second place to receive 30%, the remaining 20% and 10% of payoff will be ground split between the two contestants.

If contestant's fees are paid but the contestant turns out, the money is figured into the payoff for that event.

Team roping payoff example: 21 teams x $80 entry fee ($4; per man) = $1680 - 3% ($50.40) = $1629.60 ÷ 2 = $814.80. There will be five (5) places paid in the team roping event.

Dues will be $60 until April 1, instead of March 15, as previously announced.

Jottings From Jann

1. KNOW YOUR CARD NUMBER WHEN ENTERING A RODEO. THIS IS IMPORTANT AND THE REASON THEY ARE ISSUED. YOU WILL SAVE THE RODEO SECRETARIES AND NRA/MRA OFFICE A LOT OF TIME AND UNNECESSARY WORK. See Page 12, Numbers 30 and 31, NRA/MRA Rulebook.

2. THE BUDDY SYSTEM IS EXPLAINED IN THE 1983 NRA/MRA RULE BOOK ON PAGE 18, NO. 11. "The Buddy System will be limited to two contestants per event, but six people can be on one buddy plan."

3. THE RODEO SECRETARY CAN REFUSE TO TAKE YOUR ENTRY IF YOU DON'T GIVE HER YOUR CARD NUMBER.

Stock Contractors and Rodeo Committees — Please be aware of the rule that if pickup men, timers, bullfighters, etc., work more than one rodeo a CARD must be purchased. Also, a judge cannot work more than two rodeos in a row for the same stock contractor. Please enforce these rules.

I have more complaints in the office recently about card numbers and entry times than ever before. Rule books were sent out with your membership cards. Apparently some of you have misplaced both. When entering a rodeo, know your card number! If someone else enters you, give them your card number. Having a card number upon entering a rodeo in the NRA/MRA is a rule. You are always lined up waiting for your payoff checks after each rodeo. The wait could be shortened considerably if you would help the rodeo secretary by giving her your card number upon entering the rodeo. Looking up 40 or so card numbers before checks can be written does take some time. One rodeo secretary called me at 4:30 p.m. on entry day. Out of 150 entries at that time, 55 did not know their card numbers. Many gave her the wrong numbers to begin with. This is additional work for her and something she should not have to be burdened with at all. Your card numbers are your responsibility.

Notice

Please take note, when entering the rodeos which are co-approved by the North Dakota Rodeo Association, that "enter twice" team roping is allowed. However, in the NRA/MRA, only the top placing counts in the standings. That is, if you place twice, only the higher placing counts in the standings, not both. These rodeos also offer ladies goat tying, which is not an approved event in our association.

Another complaint that is heard after EVERY entry day and call back day, is that entries close at 6 p.m. (or whatever the advertised time may be for that particular rodeo) not at 6:30 p.m., not at 11 p.m., and not the next morning. Same goes for call backs. This is all very well publicized, so there is no excuse. Save yourself the phone call and bother to the rodeo secretary after entries are closed. Call backs on Thursday morning are uncalled for.

If everyone would at least attempt to cooperate, it would help you, your association, and the people who work for you. If you need to know a card number of someone you are entering, give me a call, and then write it down. If you need rule books, I will be more than happy to send you one. It tells it all right in there.

Dues are $80. New Members $60.

Jann Johnson, NRA/MRA Secretary

NARC Notes

By Bryan Lonski, Executive Secretary
North American Rodeo Commission

Some of the regional rodeo associations which make up the North American Rodeo Commission are rich, some are poor, but they all have one thing in common. They are all interested in ways of raising additional money for their rodeos.

An ingenious plan was disclosed to me recently by Mac McKie, NARC Director. The Canadian Cowboys Association (CCA) is having an Instant Rancher Raffle (IRR). The association will print and sell 2,000 tickets, to be sold at $50.00 each, thus raising $100,000. The grand prize winner to be selected at the Finals will receive 50 pregnancy tested high quality beef cattle. They figure about $40,000 for the cows, $10,000 for printing and advertising; this leaves about $50,000 for the Cowboy Countdown, the CCA Finals Rodeo.

For those of you who like to gamble, and since all cowboys are gamblers, this should be a natural program.

Larry Wirtz, owner of the Northern Rodeo Company in Outlook, Mont., will pay the entry fees at the Coors North American Championship Rodeo for the top individual bareback rider from the North Dakota Rodeo Association, Northern Rodeo Association, and Montana Rodeo Association. He tells me that the bareback riders in these three associations have been awfully nice to the Northern Rodeo Company by selecting their bareback horses for top stock awards. Therefore, he decided to return the favor for the top bareback rider for each of those three associations who will be going to the 1983 NARC Finals.

Jim Roush of Douglas, Wyo. who, along with some partners, put on the bucking horse sale during the 1982 Finals, plans to have another during the 1983 Coors North American Championship Rodeo. They are currently looking for some additional livestock holding facilities in the Denver area. More information on the bucking horse and bull sale, to be held during the NARC Finals, will be published as it becomes available.

For more information on rodeo approvals, standings and information about NARC association activities, you may subscribe to the World of Rodeo (the official publication), P.O. Box 1111, Billings, Mont. 59103. Just $10 a year.

$1000 PAID to Qualifying DEE BARETTA (R.O.M.) Barrel Futurity Colt each year. Book now to the Doc Bar that does it all. $750 stud fee, $3/day mare care. Bill and Carolynn Viotor, 406-859-3845. 4-3tc

Hats off to . . .

KARI ICENOGGLE, 1982 Ladies Barrel Racing Rookie, was new to the NRA/MRA last summer, but not to rodeo. She comes from a rodeo family who rodeo a lot in the Chinook Association in Alberta. She lives on the family ranch north of Cut Bank, just a few miles from the U.S. - Canadian line, when she isn't going to school at MSU in Bozeman. Her dad, Bill, is calf roper and team roper, her younger sister, Gina, is an aspiring junior barrel racer, and her sister and brother-in-law, Lola and Mark Chaboyer, barrel race and rope respectively.

BEFORE AND AFTER. Drive into any rodeo grounds on rodeo day, spot the camper with the contestant draw, stock draw, standings, etc., plastered on the back, and you have found the rodeo secretary. Afterwards, that camper is the focus of much attention, as successful cowboys and cowgirls hang around for the payoff. The camper is Sharon Martin's, the rodeo is the Broken Horn Stampede in Absarokee, and the lineup is stock contractor Dale Small, Jann Johnson, Robert Vermandel and Guy Small.

STATEMENT AND RELEASE

This form to be completed, signed, notarized, and on file with Northern Rodeo Association, Inc./Montana Rodeo Association Inc., before applicant may be issued a membership card.

I, _____, represent to Northern Rodeo Association, Inc./Montana Rodeo Assoc., Inc., that I am fully aware that participation in rodeo events may be hazardous; that I am familiar with rodeo stock, facilities, equipment, and procedures; that I am capable of determining for myself whether rodeo stock is suitable and rodeo facilities, equipment, and procedures are safe and proper; and that I will not participate in any rodeo approved by Northern Rodeo Assoc. Inc./Montana Rodeo Assoc., Inc., without first determining for myself whether the stock is suitable and the facilities, equipment, and procedures are safe and proper.

I understand fully that Northern Rodeo Assoc. Inc./Montana Rodeo Assoc. Inc., will rely upon these representatives in determining whether to accept me as a member.

I agree, in consideration for my acceptance as a member, to save Northern Rodeo Assoc., Inc./Montana Rodeo Assoc. Inc., and its agents harmless in the event of any claim for injury to my person or property resulting from my participation in any rodeo event approved by Northern Rodeo Assoc. Inc./Montana Rodeo Assoc. Inc., and I do by these present release and discharge Northern Rodeo Assoc. Inc./Montana Rodeo Assoc. Inc., and its agents as well as the promoters, managers, employees, and helpers from any claim for injury to my person or property, past, present, or future, resulting from my participation in any such rodeo event.

I have carefully read the foregoing statement and release and I fully understand the effect of my signing it.

"Guess who's been to AUTO ACRES?" Photographer Becky Tescher actually needed a wide angle lens to get the entire vehicle in the photo, but the smile of satisfied customer Britt Givens makes up for it. Givens is pictured on the cover this month, and no doubt the comfortable ride he had to Absarokee in his new car made his 83 marking on Mission Mountain possible.
